

Heritage Farm Open Schooling Horse Show
November 29, 10 AM

Judge: Karry Brothers, Stephentown NY

Classes: $12 each - Trophy and ribbons for each class.

Terms to Know:

Equitation: Judging rider's position and horse's response to the rider's aids.

Pleasure: Judging the horse's attitude, manners and suitability; which horses seem the most pleasurable to ride.

Hunters: Judging the horse's manners, suitability and performance; which horses seem most reliable to take riding outside of the ring.

Division G Specifications:

Touch And You're Out: Open to ALL riders. Class starts with one pole on the ground. Riders continue taking turns, with jump getting bigger each rotation, until either their horse touches the pole or jump gets too big for them. Refusals are also immediate disqualification.

Command: Riders must do each command as it is given, upon the word "NOW". Delays, incorrect diagonals, leads, etc are all immediate disqualification.

Gambler's Choice: Each fence on course is given a point value. Within the time allowed, riders must try to earn as many points as possible by jumping each fence at least once, but with no limit on # of fences allowed.

Informal clothing accepted: Boots, helmet, riding pants, solid color/ collared shirt, please. Dress for the weather!
